

1. Use the infographic to answer the following questions.
<https://magic.piktochart.com/output/12836136-legal-system>

1. What constitutional rights are protected in the steps depicted? (and in which steps did you see this?)
2. What is an indictment?
3. What happens at arraignment? Why would someone plead guilty?
4. What is the purpose of the jury? Why do the lawyers question them before the trial?
5. What are the possible outcomes of a trial?

For questions 6-10, pick one of the questions to create a constructed response of 4-6 sentences. Answer the other questions briefly.

6. Compare the charts on crime in North Carolina in 2013 and 2014. What trends do you see in violent crime and property crime from 2013 to 2014?
7. What do the charts on population of the country and of death row tell us about the criminal justice system in this country?
8. Why are death penalty cases more expensive than non-death penalty cases?
9. How are poverty and crime linked in North Carolina?
10. How are education and crime related?

2. You also need to do the following Achieve 3000 article
“For Armstrong, a Year to Forget”

Paragraph Structure:

Topic Sentence- Mention article and author, restate the question and provide an answer.

Textual Evidence

Support- Explain how the text supports your answer.

Textual Evidence

Support

Conclusion- Restate your answer and close.